ten began studying music, singing in the white voices' choir. Music connects her to theater and she started to attend an acting class in high school that will make her fall in love with this profession. Once she graduates she flies to Australia for a year to study English.

In 2017 she began his career on acting at the International Academy of Theatre in Rome. A journey that lasted three years in which all the characters of acting are faced, starting from the theatrical to the cinematic. The training, linked to movement, listening and credibility, led her to obtain a Degree in 1st level of Acting.

In recent years Marta has taken part in the numerous exhibitions of academic shows and also in shows of emerging companies. She has also participated in music videos and short films.
